Flynn Clayman

We're honored to welcome Flynn Clayman, Head Men's Basketball Coach at High Point University, as the guest speaker for our 3rd Annual Great Futures Dinner!

Clayman's playing career included stops at Colorado State and Troy, plus a year at the University of the Columbers, before a professional stint overseas.

He began his coaching career at Southern Utah University, first as a special assistant, then as an assistant, associate head coach, and briefly as interim head coach.

Clayman began his career at High Point as Associate Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator. In those roles, he helped the Panthers to a 56 - 15 overall record over two seasons, including back-to-back outright Big South regular season titles and a first-ever NCAA tournament appearance for the school.

In 2025, Clayman was named head coach for High Point. In his first season, Clayman led High Point to another Big South regular season title and conference championship. The team went on to win the program's first victory in the NCAA tournament with a stunning upset over Wisconsin.

Following the season, Clayman received the Big South Coach of the Year and the Red Auerbach Coach of the Year honors and was a finalist for the Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year award.

Flynn is married to Katie Clayman, and they have two children.
